Chapter – 2

STANDARDS AND DISTINGUISHING FLAGS

4. The President. - (1) The National Flag will be hoisted on board ships in harbour, on official buildings and enclosures only when President is present. It will be hauled down at the moment of departure.

(2) Whenever the President embarks on any of the ships in harbour, the National Flag is to be hoisted at the mast or in the most conspicuous part of the ship.

(3) National Flag at Jack Staff. — On occasions when a ship is underway with the President embarked, such ship and all escorting ships shall wear the National Flag at the Jack staff and shall wear the Coast Guard ensign and National Flag continuously day and night.

5. A. Senior Officer’s Flags. - The following flags shall be hoisted at the mast by entitled officers as their proper flags ; -

(i) Director General. - A blue flag with Coast Guard crest superimposed in the centre of the flag with three vertical stars in the upper, centre and lower cantons next to the fly.

(ii) Inspector General. - A blue flag with Coast Guard crest superimposed in the centre with two vertical stars in the upper and lower cantons next to the fly.

(iii) Deputy Inspector General, if Commanding a Coast Guard Region. - A blue flag with Coast Guard crest superimposed in the centre with one star in the centre next to the fly.
Deputy Inspector-General other than Regional Commanders. - A blue pennant with Coast Guard crest superimposed in the centre with one star in the centre next to the fly.

B. (i) Flags afloat. - Officers entitled to fly flags afloat are: Director-General, Inspector-General and Deputy Inspector-General in command of a Coast Guard Region.

(ii) Flags ashore. - Officers entitled to fly a flag ashore are: Director-General and Regional Coast Guard Commanders.

6. Flags and Pennants Displaced. - The President's flag shall always be worn at the mast, the flag/pennant of Director-General/Inspector-General/Deputy Inspector-General, if necessary, being shifted to another suitable location or ship as the case may require.

7. Flag half-masted. - (1) In the event of the death of the President, ships and establishments shall half-mast colours from the day on which intimation of the death is received and they shall remain at half-mast until sunset on the day of the funeral or as ordered.

   (2) On the death of other dignitaries, orders concerning the ceremony to be observed shall be issued by the Director-General on each occasion. The usual procedure to be followed shall be for colours to be half-mast on the day of the funeral only.

8. Alternative positions for the hoisting of flags and ensigns. - (1) In ships with mast and superstructures that do not allow the hoisting of flags and ensigns at the customary or authorised positions, such flags may be hoisted at another mast or, if necessary, at the yardarm.

   (2) Dressing-Lines. —When suitable centre-line positions cannot be provided aloft for dressing-lines blocks these should be sited at port or starboard yardarms as high as possible.

9. Mast Head Pennant. - (1) All ships in commission and when not wearing a flag or pennant, shall fly at the masthead a Coast Guard Pennant, a blue pennant of 9 cms length with 9 cms breadth at the head and 4.5 cms at the fly, with Coast Guard emblem superimposed at the distance of 15 cms from the head.
(2) If necessary, in order to avoid fouling radio aerials and other obstruction aloft, a shorter pennant may be flown, provided it can be easily seen at a short distance from the ship.

(3) At shore establishment in Commission, a masthead pennant shall be flown at the head of the flag staff when a flag staff is fitted.

Chapter – 3

COLOURS

10. The President's Colours. - (1) The President's Colours shall be paraded on shore in India on the following occasions, namely: -

   (a) by a Guard of Honour mounted for the President;
   (b) on the Republic Day;
   (c) on such important ceremonial occasions as may be ordered by the Director-General.

(2) The President's Colours shall only be lowered to the President, foreign Sovereigns, Presidents of Republic States or Governors within their jurisdiction.

(3) The President's Colours when carried uncased shall be received at all times with the highest respect with arms presented, officers saluting and the band playing the National Anthem.

11. Coast Guard ensign ashore. - (1) On occasions of important ceremonial reviews or international Coast Guard displays ashore outside India, the Coast Guard ensign may be carried with Coast Guard landing parties at the discretion of the Senior Coast Guard officer present.

(2) In countries the Government of which is recognised by the Government of India, the Coast Guard ensign may be carried by Coast Guard detachments on the following important ceremonial occasions, namely:-

   (a) when the Head of the State or his representative is present; or
   (b) when the omission of the Coast Guard ensign might cause misunderstanding or offence.
(3) At the discretion of Director-General or Senior Coast Guard officer present, the Coast Guard ensign may be hoisted at a flag staff ashore in India or in a country the Government of which is recognised by the Government of India, on such occasions at the “Beating Retreat” or at the saluting base in a march past or review.

(4) The parading of Coast Guard ensign is unauthorised except for the occasions specified in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3).

12. Ships in commission. - (1) All Coast Guard Ships in commission shall wear the following colours:

   (a) A Coast Guard ensign.

   (b) The National Flag, which should be of smaller dimensions than the ensign; at the Jack staff when in harbour, at anchor or moored to a buoy or alongside. Ships in dock or ships in dockyard hands shall not wear the National Flag at the Jack staff.

   (c) A pennant as specified in rule 9.

(2) Ships not in commission shall not wear colours except on occasion of their launch.

13. Wearing the Coast Guard ensign. - (1) The Coast Guard ensign shall be worn:

   (a) in harbour - at the ensign staff;

   (b) at sea-at the ensign staff whenever possible, but in bad weather or whenever the ensign staff is not available, for reasons, such as the ship being cleared for action, and the like, it should be worn on a staff in a suitable position on the after superstructure.

   (2) The Senior Officer present shall arrange for the necessary uniformity, especially as regards ships of the same class.

14. Colours - hoisting and hauling down. - (1) Ships shall hoist their colours (National Flag and Coast Guard ensign) at 0800 hours daily or as directed by the Senior Officer; they are to be worn throughout the day, subject to the weather or as the Senior Officer may direct, until sunset, when they shall be hauled down.

   (2) When bands are ordered to play at the hoisting of the colours, they will play the Indian National Anthem.
(3) When in a foreign port, bands shall play the national anthem of the country in which the port is situated, immediately after the Indian National Anthem.

(4) When bands are not paraded, the bugle shall sound the general salute.

(5) If there is sufficient light for the ensign to be seen, it shall be hoisted earlier or later than provided in the preceding sub-rules, unless there is sufficient reason to the contrary, whenever a ship takes up her berth, or gets underway, or on her passing, meeting, joining or parting from any other Indian Coast Guard ship, or on her falling in with any other ship or ships at sea, or when in sight of, and near, the land and specially when passing or approaching forts, batteries, signal or Coast Guard Stations, light houses or towns.

15. Lowering flags. - Ships shall not on any account lower their flags to any foreign ships whatsoever, unless the foreign ships shall first, or at the same time, lower their flags to them.

16. Half-masting colours. - (1) Colours half-masted for a funeral or interment on shore shall be lowered at the time the funeral procession is due to leave the place where the body has been lying and re-hoisted when sufficient time has elapsed for the cremation or interment.

(2) When the body leaves a ship, the colours shall be lowered when the body is removed from where it had been lying on board the ship and re-hoisted when sufficient time has elapsed for the cremation or interment.

(3) For a funeral at sea, the colours shall be lowered when the body is removed from where it has been lying and re-hoisted when the funeral service is ended.

(4) When the body is being removed from a ship to await cremation or interment, colours shall not be half-masted, but the boat conveying it shall fly a boat's ensign at half-mast.

(5) When colours are ordered to be half-masted throughout the day, they shall be hoisted close up when colours are hoisted in the morning and immediately lowered to half-mast. At sunset, they shall first be hoisted close up and then lowered in the usual manner.

(6) When in foreign ports, if ships/ warships of the countries concerned half-mast their colours on the death of one of their nationals, ships shall as a matter of courtesy conform by half-masting their own colours. In the event of a foreign ship being in an Indian port on such an occasion, ships in company shall half-mast their colours on the day of the funeral only, unless special orders are issued by the Director-General or the Senior Coast Guard officer present.
(7) Ships approaching or leaving an anchorage where ships of any other country are wearing a foreign national flag at half-mast at the main, or have their colours at half-mast, shall, while within sight of the ships in port, hoist or keep the foreign national flag at half-mast, or half-mast their own colours.

(8) On the death (otherwise than in battle) of a Senior Officer whose flag is flying in one of the ships or Coast Guard Stations, his flag shall be half-masted and kept at half-mast until sunset on the day of funeral when it shall be hoisted close up and then finally struck.

(9) If, however, the funeral is to take place at a distance from the ship or port in which the flag is flying, the flag shall be kept at half-mast until sunset on the day on which the body is removed from the ship or port for the purpose of burial or cremation.

(10) Instructions regarding half-masting of colours on the death of the President as contained in rule 7 shall also be applicable in the event of the death of the Vice-President or the Prime Minister.

17. Dressing Ship. - (1) All ships which are supplied with necessary material shall be dressed overall in port from the time of hoisting colours until sunset on the Republic Day and on the Independence Day.

(2) Ships underway and those not fitted with dressing lines, shall dress only with ensigns at their mast-heads and National Flag at the Jack staff. This method shall also be adopted by other ships by orders of the Senior Officer present, should conditions render dressing ship overall inexpedient.

(3) Ships shall also be dressed by order of the Senior Officer present when in the presence of a flag of a Head of a State on occasions of visits of a Head of State and on certain foreign ceremonial occasions when in the presence of ships, or in the waters of the concerned countries. The manner of dressing and time during which ship shall be dressed shall be stated on each of these occasions according to circumstances.

(4) On occasions when ships are dressed in honour of an Indian ceremonial or personage, ships wearing flags/pennants of the Director-General/Inspector-General/Deputy Inspector-General shall wear the Coast Guard ensign only at masts not occupied by either of the above. Other ships shall wear the Coast Guard ensign at the mast/masthead.

18. Launching of Coast Guard Ships. - (1) Colours shall be worn at all launching of ships whether dockyard or contract built, at which there is a "Naming Ceremony"; the Coast Guard ensign shall be worn at the ensign staff and the National Flag at the Jack staff. It shall not be necessary to hoist any other flag.
(2) The largest size of the flag shall be:

(a) Ensign - 8 breadths.

(b) National Flag - 6 breadths.
