(a) The Consultant shall not be engaged against vacant posts in any cadre which is below the level of Section Officer.

(b) The Consultant should have functional knowledge of computer and domain knowledge of the field for which he is applying.

(c) The Consultant who has worked in Ministry of Defence earlier would be preferred.

4. Procedure for Appointment of the Consultants:

(a) The persons willing to be appointed as Consultant shall submit the application in prescribed proforma to Estt. Section of MoD during the working hours on all working days.

(b) All the applications received during the fortnight shall be put up before the "Consultants Screening Committee" consisting of JS(E), Additional FA(S), MoD(Finance) & JS(Coordination/DDP) which shall examine all the applications with respect to guidelines as well as financial angle and make recommendations.

(c) The recommendations of the Committee shall be processed and put up to Hon'ble RM for approval through AS in charge of Estt. Division and Defence Secretary.

(d) After the approval of Hon'ble RM is received, offer for appointment to the Consultant in prescribed proforma shall be issued by the Estt. Division of MoD.

(e) On receipt of offer letter from MoD, the Consultant shall submit letter of consent in prescribed proforma along with the following:

- (i) Agreement in prescribed proforma duly signed by the Consultant.
- (ii) Medical Fitness Certificate in prescribed proforma by CMO, CGHS / AMA / CGHS empanelled hospital.
- (iii) Police Verification in prescribed proforma in case Consultant is joining after six months after his date of retirement.

5. Procedure for termination of the services of the Consultants:

- (a) The "Unsatisfactory Performance Report" in respect of Consultant shall be submitted by the concerned JS of the wing to Estt. Section of MoD.
- (b) On receipt of such "Unsatisfactory Performance Report", the necessary process for termination of his contract shall be effected after giving opportunity to the Consultant to explain his position.
- (c) The services of the Consultant shall be terminated with the approval of Hon'ble RM.

6. Terms and Conditions appointment of the Consultants:

- (a) The Consultant shall be engaged initially for a period of six months which can further be extended for another six months by competent authority on recommendations of Consultants Screening Committee subject to his satisfactory performance as Consultant in his previous tenure. Under no circumstances the total tenure as Consultant shall exceed 2 years.
- (b) The remuneration payable to the Consultant will be as per the norms fixed by the Mod(Finance) from time to time for a particular rank.
- (c) The Consultant shall not be entitled for any other benefit/facilities except remuneration.
- (d) In case the Consultant has to proceed on tour, his TA/DA claim shall be regulated as per his entitlement at the time of retirement.
